

Awards 2018

A Celebration of EWI Innovation and Excellence

INCA Awards 2018

Thursday 1 November

Hilton Manchester Deansgate,
303 Deansgate,
Manchester,
M3 4LQ

INCA is delighted to present the INCA Awards 2018 at the Hilton Manchester Deansgate, the city's first true skyscraper, and the tallest building outside of London.

Viewed from the side, Beetham Tower is one of the thinnest skyscrapers in the world!

The INCA Awards is a celebration of the dynamism and passion our members have for the External Wall Insulation (EWI) industry. The Awards are an opportunity to thank our members and promote their exceptional achievements and projects. This year we look forward to awarding trophies in nine categories, including the new Heritage and Component Supplier of the Year Awards. We can confirm over 70 entries of an exceptional standard.

Our host for the day is Alfie Moore, a comedian and speaker with a distinctive style. He has an unusual background, given he is a serving police sergeant (currently on a sabbatical).

Those attending the Awards will enjoy welcome drinks, a delicious 3-course lunch, and the opportunity for post-award drinks at Cloud 23, the bar located at the highest point in Manchester. We look forward to seeing you there!

“A fantastic event, and a great opportunity to network with key players in the industry.”
